My dear Sir

In a letter received a day or two ago from home I learn of your safe arrival with pleasure. I drop you this to say that I should have liked to have been there to welcome you, but as I anticipated, I have been a resident of Montreal for a month past and shall probably be here for a week or ten days to come. I would be pleased to have a line from you in relation to your experience abroad. I suppose you have returned with a load of good things and on my way home

I hope to have the pleasure of calling
on you and of feasting my eyes on your collection

Sincerely Yours
